PEMBROKE, N.C. - Senior Rindy Vidovich was named the 2008 Peach Belt Conference Volleyball Player of the Year on Friday evening, highlighting the league's annual awards banquet prior to the 2008 PBC Volleyball Championships in Pembroke, N.C.

Vidovich has enjoyed an outstanding season in 2008, currently ranking fourth in the Peach Belt in hitting percentage at .321, while also leading the league by a healthy margin in hitting percentage in league-only matches at .358. Vidovich is the only player in the league that is hitting .300 or better against league opponents.

Twice, Vidovich has been named PBC Player of the Week, on October 13 and on November 10. A 2006 All-PBC and All-PBC Tournament honoree, Vidovich ranks sixth all-time in AASU history in kills with 924.

Joining Vidovich on the All-PBC team for the Pirates is sophomore setter Hannah Segebart. Segebart leads the Peach Belt in assists and ranks 11th in NCAA Division II, averaging 11.48 assists per game.

Head coach Will Condon was also honored on Friday evening as he was named PBC Co-Coach of the Year. He shares the honor with Francis Marion head coach Paul MacDonald and Lander head coach Carla Decker as a three-way tie in the league's voting could not be broken. It is the second straight Coach of the Year honor for Condon, who was also the league's award winner in 2006 while at USC Aiken.

The Pirates also received their 2008 PBC Championship plaque for compiling an 8-2 record in the league during the season.

AASU opens up action in the 2008 PBC Championships on Saturday evening at 7:00 p.m. against the winner of the No. 4 and No. 5 seeds, USC Aiken and Augusta State.
